A DARING ATTACK

Young Russian Officer and Three Jackies Torpedo Warship.

DONE IN THE NIGHT

Under Cover of Darkness a Small Launch Steals Upon the Giant Battleship and Cripples It.

The Russian Cushing Gets Away Safely and Is Given a Great Reception.

Liao Yang, May 14.—(Delayed in transmission.)—The Russian fleet scored its first distinct naval success of the war on May 10 by the torpedoing and crippling, though not sinking, of an armored Japanese cruiser in Tallienwan bay. The Russian attack was carefully planned on May 10 while the Japanese squadron was concentrated outside Dalny, devoting its whole attention to Tallienwan bay, and was carried out the same night.

The attacking force was not a regular torpedo boat, but was only a small naphtha launch in command of a young naval officer who had with him three jackies. The launch mounted a small machine gun and carried three torpedoes.

When darkness fell the launch crept out of Port Arthur, hugging the shore with no lights aboard and no glow from the engines to betray her presence. It was late when she gained the outer line from the Japanese squadron. Slipping through the torpedo boat pickets and selecting the nearest warship, a big armored cruiser, she stole toward her and succeeded in exploding against her side a single torpedo. A deafening roar followed the explosion which echoed far ashore. Immediately flames enveloped the cruiser, which evidently was badly crippled.

The crew of the cruiser was seen to be fighting the fire, which they at last succeeded in extinguishing. A sister ship took the damaged vessel in tow and disappeared to the south-east. The launch escaped the hot fire directed against her by the Japanese ships, but being unable to return to Port Arthur or to get into Dalny, she was beached not far from Dalny.

Only a few of the higher officers were aware of the plan, the success of which depended upon secrecy. The achievement raised the spirits of the Russians afloat and ashore, and the young naval officer who was the hero of the exploit was feted and recommended for the cross of St. George.

The Russians on May 11, apprehending that the presence of a Japanese squadron meant an attempt to capture Dalny blew up the piers and quietly evacuated the place.

Two thousand Japanese have re-occupied the road to Sanchillu, again cutting off Port Arthur. A strong force is advancing against Polandien.

AT PORT ARTHUR

Communication Has Not Been Wholly Cut Off.

St. Petersburg, May 16.—The emperor has received the following report from Viceroy Alexieff dated May 14: "I beg respectfully to communicate to your majesty a report from Rear Admiral Wittoeff, on the state of affairs at Port Arthur from May 6 to May 12. The report was brought by express runner from Dachehiao station on the eve of the second interruption of communications by the enemy. It follows: "The enemy's squadron, composed of ironclads, cruisers and torpedo boats, appeared off Port Arthur May 5 and continues to blockade without undertaking active operations.

"The work of repairing the ironclads Czarevich and Retzian is proceeding with unabated energy and with every success.

"During an examination of the roadstead and fairway at the spot where the battleship Pobieda was damaged by a mine we found one of the enemy's defense mines which had been exploded by the force of the hurricane."

GRASPING AT STRAWS

In Face of Signal Defeats Russians Express Hopeful Views.

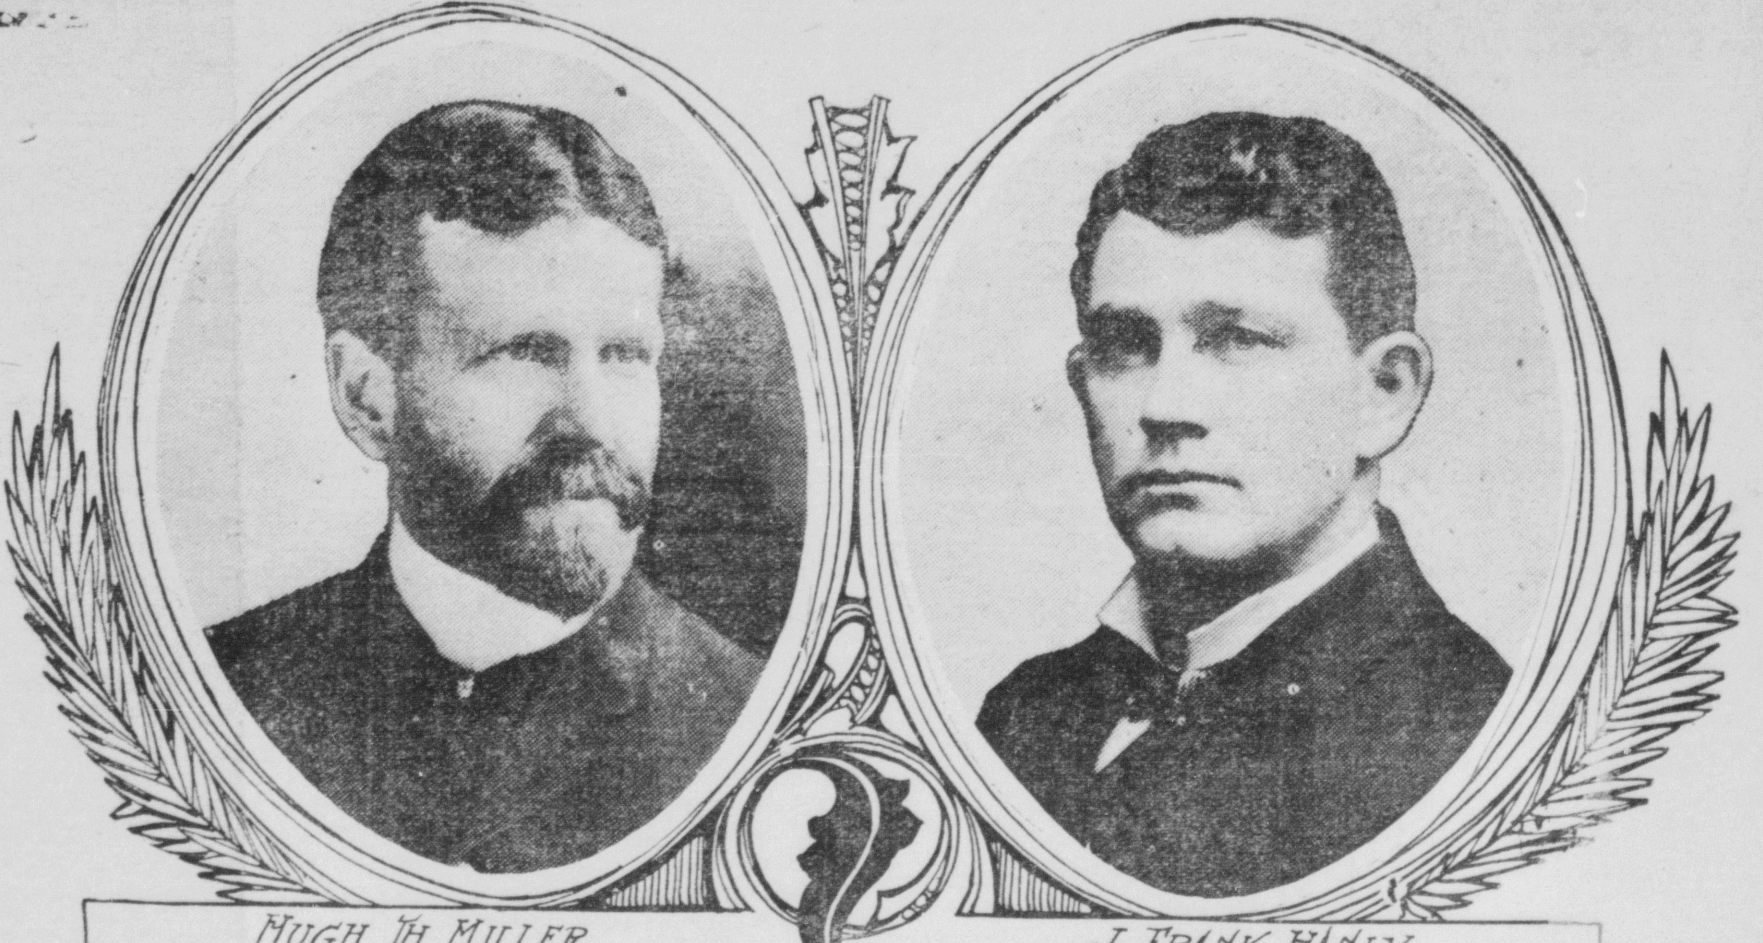

St. Petersburg, May 16.—A statement by the admiralty covering events at Port Arthur from May 6 to May 12 was received by the emperor at Tsarkoye Selo last night, shortly before his departure for Moscow. The situation there is considered satisfactory, as the dispatch shows the confidence and preparedness of Rear Admiral Wittoeff up to the second cutting of communication with Port Arthur.

The fact that the Russians discovered another Japanese mine almost in the exact spot where the battleship Pobieda was injured is taken as evidence of the desperate thoroughness with which the Japanese must have carried out their mining operations on April 11.

Captives to Be Shipped.

Seoul, May 16.—Reports have been received here that 450 captured Russian officers and men will shortly be dispatched from Yungampo to Moji, Japan.

HARD TO DECIDE

Republicans of Illinois Still In Deadlock Over Head Of Ticket.

LOYAL TO CANDIDATES

The Several Factions Among the Delegates Stick Tenaciously to Their Original Choice.

First Ballot Today Indicated Little Change In the General Situation.

Springfield, Ill., May 16.—Balloting was resumed in the Republican state convention for a gubernatorial candidate again this afternoon, the convention having taken a recess late Saturday night until 2 o'clock today. The first ballot of the afternoon, the 25th in all, showed little change in the Saturday night situation, and it looks now as if there would be at least another day of fruitless balloting before the gubernatorial deadlock is broken. It is quite possible that a break will come late this afternoon, but the developments of today do not justify any such prediction.

Most of the delegates spent Sunday at home, but the candidates and their trusted advisers remained on the ground, and numerous conferences were held during the day. It is known definitely that desperate efforts are being made to take from the Yates column enough delegates to nominate Lowden on an early ballot today. The Lowden managers are making a more thorough canvass of the situation than has ever been attempted by them before, and they expect to bring about enough changes to give their candidate a majority vote. It is reported that the Will county delegation will go to Lowden on an early ballot today. This, however, although emanating from a Will county delegate, is received skeptically. After the failure of the attempted stampede to Lowden Saturday, started by Dekalb county, it is thought probable that Lowden will not permit any of the counties which he may secure to vote for him until he feels confident of having enough to nominate; for the moment Yates counties begin going to Lowden the remaining Yates men may be expected to go to Deneen or the Deneen men will go to Yates. There is now no probability that a "dark horse" will be chosen. Indeed, the choice is generally regarded as being between Yates, Lowden and Deneen. So far what is known as the "federal crowd," headed by Senators Cullom and Hopkins, Speaker Cannon and a number of congressmen, has exerted but little influence in attempts to break the deadlock. At one time it is said that Cannon was willing that Vermillion should go to Lowden, but the delegates themselves would not desert Hamlin.

Events up to date have demonstrated that the delegates to this convention, to a greater extent than has ever before been the case, are loyal to the candidates in whose interest they were selected and are not easily led away or shifted about by the generally recognized party leaders.

Vigorous Sanitary Measures. Mexico City, May 16.—The superior board of health will enter at once upon an active campaign to prevent another outbreak of yellow fever on the isthmus of Tehuantepec, where a large number of Americans are engaged in managing plantations. The cost of this work will be about $100,000, which has been appropriated by the federal government.

A Crumb of Comfort. St. Louis, May 16.—Official notice has been issued to creditors by W. D. Coles, referee in bankruptcy, that a dividend of 2 per cent on all approved claims against E. J. Arnold & Co., the turf investment concern which failed a year ago with liabilities of $3,000,000 and assets of $75,000 will be paid by the trustee for the bankrupts.

Ohio State Convention.

Columbus, Ohio, May 16.—The Republican state convention meets here next Tuesday and Wednesday under new conditions. This is due to the loss of Senator Hanna, who had attended these gatherings for a score of years and dominated them for the past decade. This week no one is supremely master. In place of Hanna there is a group of leaders. There are 951 delegates in the convention. A large majority is affiliated with what is called "The old Hanna guard," so that there is no doubt about the convention being controlled by Governor Herrick, George B. Cox and Senator Dick, who with Senator Foraker will be the delegates-at-large to the Republican national convention at Chicago.

Assassin Kills Policeman.

Denver, Col., May 16.—Lyte Gregory, an ex-policeman, was assassinated early Sunday morning when he was returning home from a social visit with friends. His body was riddled with bullets and he died in his tracks. It is believed the assassin used a repeating rifle, and his aim was true, for ten bullets penetrated the murdered man's body. No positive trace of the assassin has been found.

Venerable Bishops Retired.

Los Angeles, Cal., May 16.—The Methodist general conference has retired from active church work six of its venerable bishops. They are Edward G. Andrews of New York, John M. Walden of Cincinnati, John H. Vincent of Zurich, Switzerland, Willard F. Mallaleu of Boston, Cyrus D. Foss of Philadelphia, and Stephen M. Merrill (by request).

Great Religious Gathering.

Cleveland, Ohio, May 16.—The annual convention of Baptists from all the Northern states began today and will continue until Tuesday, May 24. The gathering promises to be one of the most important and largely attended religious conventions ever held. Two thousand are expected to attend the public sessions.

Ask a healthy woman what she would sell her health for and she would tell you that the choicest diamonds in the world could not buy it. What use for diamond rings to emphasize the shrunken fingers, or earrings to light up the cheeks hollowed by disease?

Health is the first requisite to womanly happiness. General ill-health in women has its origin in local womanly diseases. Cure the diseases of the delicate womanly organism and the general health is perfectly restored. The remarkable benefits experienced from the use of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription are due to this medicine's perfect cures of womanly diseases. It establishes regularity, dries weakening drains, heals inflammation and ulceration and cures female weakness.

"It affords me great pleasure to be able to say a few words in regard to the merits of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription and his 'Golden Medical Discovery.' After he saw the wonderful effects of that one he got me two more, and after I used those up there was no more pain, and I began to gain in flesh very rapidly."

"Favorite Prescription" makes weak women strong, sick women well. Accept no substitute for the medicine which works wonders for weak women.

HEARTS COURAGEOUS

As the two friends talked the chimneys had clattered from Christ church, and just as the tones sounded a stout-trunked old man with a shrewd, simple face under a broad hat lifted the latch of a nearby gate which barred an oblong green yard from the street.

Therein under a mulberry tree where yellow cabbage butterflies went kissing wings a chubby woman was sitting by a table whereon stood some books and a glass bottle containing a two-headed snake in spirits. Two tousled children rolled and romped unheeded under foot. The film of twilight was falling from a cooling sky.

"You are late, father," the woman said as the old man greeted her. "Supper is almost ready. Young Mr. Jefferson has sent word that he will be here this evening. I do hope," she added good naturedly, "that you won't sit up all night again over that threepence paper he is writing. Laws! One would think it had been a real speech."

She ran to fetch a dish of tea, and her father sat down in his chair and took off his hat. His head was bald, with a fringe of white hair. He was mopping his forehead with a large kerchief when she returned with the tea.

"Bless me!" she said as the gate clicked. "Here is some one to see you already. A young man and handsome," she whispered, as he came nearer. "But how pale!" It was Armand.

"Is this Dr. Franklin?" he inquired. "It is."

"Sir," said Armand, "a packet was given secretly into your hands to hold for me some time since, sealed with a red seal bearing four lances."

Dr. Franklin drew his brows together with a glance of surprise and shook his head.

"Surely you have received it?" There was a curious rigor of anxiety in the tone that caused Dr. Franklin to glance sharply at his questioner. The scrutiny satisfied him, for the look of suspicion that had been stiffened by the strenuous times faded into his habitual benevolence.

"I recall none such," he answered gravely. "What name did it bear?" "It bore no name." The tone shook now with a confusion of apprehension.

"I fear that is all the more reason that I could not have forgot it. These are troublous days, sir, and faith not always to be relied upon. To whom did you intrust this document?"

Something like fear had come into the other's eyes, and Dr. Franklin for the first time noted with concern his agitation and pallor.

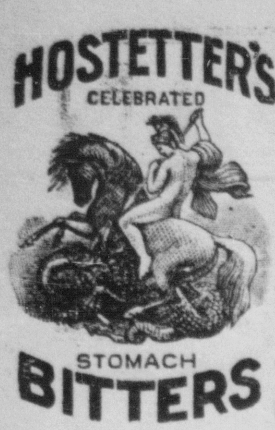

"To a young lady of Virginia." "I am sorry, sir, deeply sorry," said the old man, "but no such packet has been put into my hands at any time."

"Poor young man!" sighed the motherly woman a few minutes later as she set the table for supper. "What think you could have been in it, father? He looked as if it had meant life or death to him."

Armand walked slowly through several side streets to the Red Lion tavern, on Sassafras street, one of the less pretentious inns. Here in a dim parlor on the ground floor waited the occupant of the fine coach which had roused the spleen of Joseph Galloway. His hat was flung on a chair, and he strode up and down, his mustachios bristling with impatience.

Township Primary Election.

Notice is hereby given to the republicans of Jackson township, Jackson county, Indiana, that the republican township primary election will be held Saturday, June 18, 1904, on which date a candidate for township trustee and a candidate for township assessor will be nominated.

By order of the township committee,
C. D. BILLINGS, Chairman.

The Illinois republican state convention has endorsed Congressman Robert Hitt for vice president.

The republicans of the Fifth district will meet in delegate convention at Terre Haute tomorrow to nominate a candidate for congress.

There is nothing of substance in the talk that Hill and other apparently big chiefs in the democratic party will throw Parker over when the time comes. Parker is the selection of August Belmont and his financial associates, the Rothschilds, and Hill thinks too much of his job to play these people false.—Journal.

The St. Louis papers and the World's Fair management are trying hard to refute the reports that have gone out that St. Louis has her "graft" schemes in full operation. They are not to be blamed for making denials but these denials do not count for much. Men who have been at St. Louis recently know that "graft" is everywhere to be found in St. Louis. The hotel rates have been advanced until they are almost prohibitory with the man of moderate means. The restaurants have also put up the price. This disposition on the part of St. Louis will not help the attendance at the big show during the summer.

BACCALAUREATE SERMON.

Strong Discourse by the Rev. C. E. Severinghaus.

A great crowd gathered at the Methodist church Sunday night to hear the annual baccalaureate sermon before the high school graduating class. The church was packed, many standing through the entire service, and besides a great many who came could not get in, so crowded was the house.

The graduating class together with Supt. H. C. Montgomery and the high school teachers came in a body and occupied seats reserved for them.

The services opened with singing by the congregation followed by prayer by Rev. J. A. Sargent. After an anthem by the choir the scripture lesson was read by Rev. A. Egli.

The baccalaureate sermon was preached by Rev. C. E. Severinghaus, pastor of the German Methodist church. The sermon was excellent from every standpoint and was heard with much interest. It was thoroughly practical and fit the occasion exactly.

His theme was "The Key to Success in Life."

Text, Joshua 1:7, "Only be thou strong and very courageous, that thou mayest observe to do according to all the law, which Moses my servant commanded thee: turn not from it to the right hand or to the left, that thou mayest prosper whithersoever thou goest."

Mr. Severinghaus first explained the text as applied to Joshua, being instructions to him from God when he was appointed to succeed Moses. Then he showed how these same truths were applicable to the members of the graduating class as they are about to enter the larger fields of usefulness. As we start out in life the question arises will we succeed or will we fail. Under a threefold division of the theme Mr. Severinghaus first used the latter part of the text: "That thou mayest prosper." This, he said, was the most striking part of the text on this commencement occasion. To the graduates he said it was the sincere wish of their friends, their teachers and parents that they succeed and it is likewise the will and pleasure of God.

But what is real success, or prosperity? It is not always the acquisition of wealth, or honor, or influence. These things often prove a curse instead of a blessing. Prosperity has a deeper and broader meaning than is often applied. Mary Abigail Dodge says:

"This I reckon to be success in life—fitness—perfect adaptation. I hold him successful and him only, who has found or conquered a position, in which he can bring himself into full play. Success is perfect or partial, according as it comes up to or falls below this standard. But entire success is rare in this world. Success in business, success in ambition is not success in life, though it may be comprehended in it. Very few of us are working at the top of our bent."

II. The Secret of Success.

On this question we are not lacking in advice. Leaders of men, those who are regarded as successful, tell us how success is achieved. All point in the same direction. All tell us that wealth and wisdom are only incidental. Persistent effort, close application, industry and perseverance are necessary to success. Prosperity requires hard work. But above all it requires obedience to God's word. "Only be thou strong etc." "In all thy ways acknowledge Him and He shall direct thy paths."

III. The exhortation and command. Observe God's command to Joshua as recorded in the text. Some are naturally stronger and more courageous than others. All need encouragement in bearing the burdens of this life, in achieving success. We should know what God wants us to do and have a faith that will conquer. Obedience and dependence are true elements of success. Make it a part of your life to strengthen and encourage others.

Gives Warning.

Marshal Prewitt is giving warning to bicycle riders who are in the habit of riding on the sidewalks. This is a dangerous practice and results frequently in serious accidents. There are those too who do not use bicycle lamps after night as a city ordinance requires. This law like all others should be obeyed.

The city marshal is also trying to break up the practice among boys who persist in using air guns and rubber slings. He visited the schools this morning and gave fair warning to the boys there. He also had something to say about boys jumping on and off of moving trains. All these are practices that should be discontinued.

A CRAZY MAN

Found Eating an Egg, Shell and all

Rational people thought it was awful, as the shell had no food value, and was, of course, indigestible and injurious.

It is just as crazy for rational people to swallow a lot of cod liver oil, to get the medicinal curatives from it, as it was for a crazy man to eat the egg, shell and all.

Modern science has proved that the oil, or greasy part of cod liver oil has no value whatever, and only upsets the stomach and retards recovery. It is the medicinal elements which are enveloped in the cod liver oil, of which there are about fifty, that represent all the tonic and curative power of the famous old remedy.

A preparation containing all the medicinal elements of cod liver oil, actually taken from fresh cods' livers, but entirely free from oil or grease, must, therefore, be the very best tonic reconstructor possible. Such is Vinol. It positively does contain every one of the fifty medicinal elements of cod liver oil, fresh and sweet, just as the egg shell contains the nutritious food, and we throw away the useless, indigestible oil, just as you throw away the egg shell.

Knowing its wonderful medicinal and curative power, we guarantee to restore health and strength to the following or refund their money without question:

Run down, debilitated, tired, overworked people; old people, weak women, nursing mothers, puny, ailing children, convalescents, or to people suffering with hard colds, hacking coughs, incipient consumption and bronchitis. Vinol never fails to make rich, red blood and gives strength to the weak and health to the sick. Try it on our guarantee. If it doesn't do you any good it won't cost you a cent. W. F. Peter Drug Co.

If You Could

Call at our office, see how well we are prepared to do the work we are doing and have us explain our methods for handling eye sight and eye strain troubles, you would easily understand why we are successful. We cannot do this by advertising, but we want to call your attention to certain symptoms which indicate that there is an error of refraction in the eye, which can be corrected by lenses ground especially for individual cases.

If your eyes are inflamed, if they water, burn or ache, if by turning the head quickly you get dizzy, or have headaches that sleep benefits more quickly than medical remedies, if the eyes turn in or out, if by holding one eye shut and looking at some clearly defined object you find vision better in one eye than the other, and numerous other symptoms, its time to have your eyes examined. We are students of "cause and effect" and will tell you frankly without hesitation if your eyes are at fault. Examinations free 9 a. m. to 8 p. m. Rev. C. W. Lee, formerly pastor of the Franklin M. E. church, has been granted a pension of $30 per month by a special act of congress. Mr. Lee served as major in the civil war and in numerous engagements was commended for bravery by his superiors in rank. He has served in the capacity of minister for over a quarter of a century but gave up this line of work to enter politics. After two defeats in the race for congressman from the fourth district he re-entered the ministry and is at present pastor of the M. E. church at Cross Plains, Ind.—Franklin Star.

Col. Chas. W. Lee is well known in this city and county, being twice nominated by the republicans to run against Francis Marion Griffith, at one convention held in this city and one in Columbus.

Mail Order Houses

Merchants Should Meet Them With Advertising

There is a great deal of talk about the mail order houses, but do you know there is not one of them that can honestly say that it can sell goods cheaper than the home merchant? It is not the price that sells the goods, but the plausible reason for the price—a plausible statement. You merchants can beat them out every time. Meet them with the same kind of advertising. The oatmeal business is an illustration of what can be done to make people buy an article they never intended to buy. People were opposed to oatmeal and said it was horse feed. The manufacturer had to present the advantages of its healthfulness, and he invested oatmeal with all the desirable qualities. There is a man in Battle Creek who, it is said, has created a market for corn-cobs, and you people pay more for your Postum Cereal than you do for coffee. A mixture of corn-cobs and sirup is made valuable by virtue of advertising.

An advertisement should show the individuality of the merchant who puts it out. Avoid cleverness. An advertisement which attracts attention to the way it is presented instead of the article advertised is not fulfilling its purposes. Avoid appeal to prejudices. Don't lug in outside matters. The secret of the success of the Spotless Town advertising is that it never loses sight of the idea of cleanliness.—J. L. Mahlin of Mahlin's Advertising Agency, Chicago.

Prefers Advertised Goods.

Advertising is a great force and a succession of accumulated impressions, and the greater number of people who are influenced by it are never known to have been reached. George Horace Lorimer, editor of the Saturday Evening Post, says, "I buy advertised articles by preference, but I never write to the advertisers." They do not all write letters and mention the name of the advertiser, but simply go and buy. We doubt if any one force, with the exception of the public school and the daily press, has done as much for the education of the human race as advertising, and the man who can so plan advertising work as to bring about large results is exercising professional ability of the highest order.—Profitable Advertising.

Looks Prosperous.

Appearances count for much in this world. A big advertisement costs money and looks like prosperity. There are many who prefer to deal with the prosperous.—Printers' Ink.

"We follow that custom at our house," answered Mr. Meekton. "We have a turkey one meal and the skeleton for the next four."—Exchange.

A SPEAKING CAMPAIGN

Oratory of the Real Sort Will Be Plan-ty in Indiana.

Indianapolis, May 16.—Senator C. C. Lyons, chairman of the speakers' bureau of the Republican state committee, is already framing up his plan of campaign. It is not very likely that there will be much speaking before the first of September, but Lyons is already getting his eye on the good spellbinders. This is Senator Beveridge's year and he will undoubtedly make a great speaking campaign. J. Frank Hanly, the nominee for governor, is one of the strongest men in the state on the stump and one of the most popular, and he is now shaping his affairs so he can get into the race soon. A host of state speakers are being enrolled, but already a number of the most prominent men in the party have promised Senator Beveridge to come to Indiana during the campaign and help out in the spellbinding.

Elaborate arrangements are being made for the entertainment of Prince Pu Lun of the imperial Chinese dynasty, who is scheduled to arrive here Wednesday. There will be a repetition of the scenes attendant upon the visit of the famous Li Hung Chang here a few years ago, except they will be on a greater scale. In fact, it is very doubtful if any titled foreigner was ever received with half as much pomp as will be displayed on behalf of the prince. One of the features will be an elaborate banquet Thursday night that will cost the guests $10 a plate. Toasts will be responded to by Senators Fairbanks and Beveridge, John L. Griffiths and J. Whitcomb Riley. The latter will dedicate a poem for the occasion. The prince is to be given a real, genuine run for his money, and it is probable that he will have cause to remember Indiana very pleasantly for a long time. His excellency Wong Kai Koh, commissioner for his country to the World's Fair at St. Louis, who is accompanying the prince as his official interpreter, calls Indianapolis his American home, as he has sent his family to Indianapolis to remain while he is a guest in this country.

The eyes of the party leaders are now turned toward Terre Haute, where the Fifth district Republican convention will be held tomorrow to nominate a successor to Congressman Elias T. Holliday. The latter's chances have brightened considerably since Morgan elected a solid delegation for him. Many believe he will now be able to land the nomination. It was a singular thing that in his first race he was nominated because he was the weakest candidate when the convention met. None of the others had strength enough to win and he was the logical compromise. While he is now regarded as the leading candidate, many believe that from the fact that there are two opponents the field will be so divided that he will get away with the nomination. Two delegates to the national convention will also be selected tomorrow, which will complete the list from this state. The Fourth is the only other district where the Republican candidate for congress has not been named.

As early as it is there is already considerable skirmishing among local politicians regarding the Republican city ticket for the campaign next year. It is the general understanding that ex-Mayor Bookwalter, in spite of his defeat last year, is again figuring on being a candidate. He has always felt that his campaign was poorly conducted and that he would have stood a better show of success if he had not had to bear the burden of a number of very unpopular ring politicians. It is said that he will try to make the race without their assistance, and there is much curiosity to see how he will fare. There is now some talk about Harry S. New, national committeeman, for the nomination, and if he should become a candidate he would undoubtedly be a strong factor. George Hitz, who made the race under the prohibition emblem last year, is a Republican, and many members of the party would like to place him at the head of the Republican ticket, but he wants to run as a Prohibition agent.

An interesting piece of political information was given out today at the headquarters of the state committee, where it was stated that ex-State Senator E. A. Dausman of Goshen has withdrawn from the race for renomination for senator from Elkhart county, and that he is now a candidate for the house. If he should be nominated and elected he will enter the race for the speakership. There promises to be a large field for speaker right from the jump on the Republican side. Warren G. Sayre of Wabash is being urged to become a candidate, and he has turned a friendly ear to the call, although it is said that he would like to serve again as chairman of the ways and means committee. Sidney Cantwell of Hartford City is another Republican who will probably run for speaker, and there is considerable talk of Ella Stansbury of Williamsport for the place. All are good men and will doubtless start with fine prospect of success.

World's Fair Attendance.

St. Louis, May 16.—The total attendance at the World's Fair for the second week ending Saturday night, showed an increase of over 50,000 over the total attendance for the opening week. The official statement of the total attendance for the second week and the attendance for the same period during the Columbian exposition shows a total for St. Louis of 138,471, against 220,614 for Chicago.

TESTIMONIAL.

MESSRS. WATSON & CO., Indianapolis, Ind., Agents. March 1, 1904. Dear Sirs:—Replying to your query as to whether I am pleased with the F. P. lighting system which you installed for me fifteen months ago, I will say that it has never given me one minute's trouble nor one dollar's expense. It gives the best light I ever saw for interior use. The actinic rays are of such a character as to make it very desirable when the perfectly natural colors of objects are to be distinguished without confusion.

As to cost of maintenance, I think my experience, based upon close observation, will warrant the statement that it is under $80 per annum, and our store is open every day in the year until 11 o'clock p. m., except on Sunday, one hour less. Under the same condition, and with the most approved facilities for the distribution of light, our bills for illuminating gas were about $200 per year, and for electric light (arcs) about $400 to $420 per annum, and at no time have we had more than one half the light we now have.

I am particularly pleased with the light, and the fact that it is so economical makes it the more desirable.

As you can readily figure, I paid for my apparatus and cost of light in about four or five months. Yours truly, R. I. EADS.

GOING AFTER BANDITS

Russian Guards Kill Fifty Chinese Outlaws.

Liao Yang, May 16.—Chinese bandits are becoming bolder and are causing considerable trouble to the Russian outposts. A swarm of the bandits attacked the coal mines ten miles north of Liao Yang. The mines, which supply the whole railroad, were guarded by 200 riflemen and 100 Cossacks. In a fierce fight the Russians repelled the bandits and then charged them, the bandits fleeing to the hills and to three neighboring villages. The troops surrounded the villages and demanded the surrender of the bandits. The surrender was at first refused, but, fearing that the Russians would destroy their homes, the villagers finally revealed the hiding-places of the fugitives. The bandits fought with the desperation of entrapped rats, and fifty of them were speared and killed. The Russians suffered no loss.

Japs Are Marching Slowly. Liao Yang, May 16.—The Japanese army in southern Manchuria is marching slowly, evidently being desirous of remaining in close touch with the reserves. The movement is aimed partly at Hai Cheng, but chiefly at Liao Yang. The Japanese main force is only forty miles from Liao Yang. The Russian troops are in excellent health and spirits and anxious to do duty.

Rumor of Big Battle Discredited.

London, May 16.—No confirmation has reached London of the rumors of a great battle at Su Yen, and no attention whatever is paid to the wild reports of the fall of Port Arthur. In Japanese quarters here confidence is expressed that a great assault upon that fortress will be attempted before the end of May.

Chinese Run Russians Out.

Liao Yang, May 16.—Chinese soldiers attacked the railroad coal mines occupied by the Russian administrative force near Port Adams and drove out the officials who were working therein, many of them escaping only partly clad. The Chinese looted the works and retired.

G. A. R. ENCAMPMENT.

Elaborate Preparations Making at Warsaw and Winona

The twenty-fifth annual encampment of the Department of Indiana, Grand Army of the Republic, which will be held at Warsaw and Winona lake on June 14, 15 and 16, will perhaps attract a larger crowd of visitors than any other state encampment held in recent years, if the mail inquiries received by Secretary C. W. Scott, of the committee on arrangements, furnish any criterion upon which to base an estimate. Nearly all of Indiana's prominent military officers of the civil war have been heard from, the majority of whom have requested quarters reserved for them during the big gathering of veterans. Among the distinguished visitors will be the widow of General John A. Logan. Governor Durbin and staff will be present on June 15, and take part in the parade.

With the exception of Indianapolis, Warsaw and Winona Lake combined can care for more people than any other city in Indiana, and preparations will be made for entertaining a crowd of 30,000 visitors on Wednesday, the big day of the encampment, while accommodations for 10,000 people will be available for visitors during the three days.

The headquarters of Department Commander George W. Grubbs and staff will be at the Winona Hotel, Winona Lake; the ladies of the G. A. R. at the Hotel Hays, Warsaw, and the Woman's Relief Corps at the White House, in Warsaw.

The first day of the encampment will be "Flag Day," and the committee has in preparation an excellent program. The ceremonies of the occasion will be given at the high school building in Warsaw. This will be in charge of the Woman's Relief Corps.

The annual encampment parade of veterans will take place at 1:30 o'clock on Wednesday afternoon. The formation will be in charge of Maj. L. E. Harter, chief marshal, and, as usual, the visiting Grand Army posts will take their places in the line according to their total membership, with the exception of the Jasper Packard Post, No. 589, of the Marion Soldiers' Home, which has been given the right of the column.

Plans for the most brilliant flag and electric-light display ever seen in this part of the country are in preparation. The business district of Warsaw and the two miles along the electric road connecting Warsaw and Winona will be one mass of flags by day and vari-colored electric lights by night. Not only will every building in Warsaw and at Winona lake take on gala attire, but it has been arranged that every farmhouse in Kosciusko county—next to the largest in the State, with its area of 556 square miles—shall display the American flag.

Since the council of administration of the Department of Indiana, G. A. R., has won its fight with the Central Passenger Association for a one-cent rate, the attendance at any previous encampment will doubtless be surpassed at the coming gathering of Indiana veterans.

Warsaw, Ind., May 14. L. H. W.

FAIR EXCHANGE.

A New Back for an Old One. How it is Done in Seymour.

The back aches at times with a dull, indescribable feeling, making you weary and restless; piercing pains shoot across the region of the kidneys, and again the loins are so lame to stoop is agony. No use to rub or apply a plaster to the back in this condition. You cannot reach the cause. Exchange the bad back for a new and stronger one. Follow the example of this Seymour citizen:

M. H. Ahlbrand of South Walnut street implement and machine salesman says: "Doan's Kidney Pills are a good remedy. I had a great deal of lameness in my back off and on for years. In the winter of 1898 my back was very bad and I went to Milhous' drug store and procured a box of Doan's Kidney Pills. I never used any medicine so prompt in relieving me. The treatment strengthened my kidneys and relieved the backache, besides toning up my general health. Since taking Doan's Kidney Pills I have never felt better in my life. My wife also suffered from backache and on taking this preparation she was as great benefit as I."

For sale by all dealers; price 50 cts. Foster—Milburn Co. Buffalo, N. Y.

Remember the name Doan's and take no other.

Boss Wool Grower.

Herman Hustedt, of Hamilton township, is the boss wool grower of this county so far as reported. He sheared one hundred and fourteen sheep this spring from which the average weight of fleece was six pounds. He also saved eighty lambs. At this rate sheepraising is profitable.

Not A Sick Day Since.

"I was taken severely sick with kidney trouble. I tried all sorts of medicines, none of which relieved me. One day I saw an ad. of your Electric Bitters and determined to try that. After taking a few doses I felt relieved, and soon there-after was entirely cured, and have not seen a sick day since. Neighbors of mine have been cured of Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Liver and Kidney troubles and General Debility." This is what B. F. Bass, of Fremont, N. C. writes. Only 50c. at W. F. Peter Drug Co.

Only a few people in Jackson county know what Eye Strain was, and what benefits could be derived from the use of special ground lenses in such cases. A gentleman prominent in railroad circles speaking of the lenses, fitted for his wife, said: "They are the best tonic she ever had, and she has not had a headache since she put the lenses on." Now this was a typical case of Eye Strain, overlooked perhaps by her physician. Of course there are numerous kinds of headaches, and one of these is caused by Eye Strain. Stop the Eye Strain with lenses and nature does the rest. If you are troubled in this way, if you are obliged to hold your near work away farther than usual, let us make an examination for you FREE OF ANY CHARGE, then you will know the true condition which exists. 9 a. m. to 8 p. m. Bedford Murder Trial.

The trial of James McDonald, charged with the murder of Miss Sara Schafer last January, was called for trial at Bedford today. Judge Wilson will hear the case. McDonald will be defended by Frank M. Vance, formerly of Brownstown and R. N. Palmer.

The general impression seems to prevail that McDonald did not commit the murder but prosecutor Miller and Detective Reed say they will show by conclusive evidence that he did.

Another Dry Sunday.

There was apparently no business done at the Seymour saloons Sunday and the same was true a week ago. No cases of actual suffering have as yet been reported because of this obedience to the provisions of the Nicholson law on these two Sundays and there will probably be none even if the order issued stands permanently.
